

Have you always wanted to know whether you are right for the World Games? Then this is exactly the right programme for you. Try it out with your friends or colleagues to see who has the strongest team. Then secure yourself a "wildcard" to the official Germany Highland Games Championships in Kempen.

Tug-o-war, caber throwing, putting stones, weight throwing and so much more are on the programme. Okay, so the only discipline you'll find here, that is also at the World Games, is tug-o-war. But, on the other hand, you will be experiencing the fascination of the Highland Games together with the Highlanders from the Lower Rhine. You will not only be a fan of the World Games, but also a fan of the Highland Games, which take place annually at the beginning of May in a huge spectacle.
